

Safety Health & Awareness Day 2016 (SHAD)

National Motorcycle Museum
24th November 2016

Limited spaces available - Book now to reserve your place!

Health and Safety in the workplace has always been, and continues to be of key focus in the construction and concrete industry. British Precast is committed to support members in gaining the knowledge and understanding to manage health and safety from both a corporate and legal viewpoint.

Taking place at the National Motorcycle Museum, Solihull this year's SHAD will focus on the legal aspects of health and safety at work, and consider the implications to employers of inadequate employee protection.
